

Peer-graded Assignment: Capstone Project - The Battle of Neighborhoods (Week 1)

Discover Melbourne Suburbs by Concentration of Bars/Clubs/Hotels

A visitor to Melbourne, Australia can be overwhelmed by the quantity and diversity of places to drink. Each suburb has a wide range of options and it is easy for the visitor not to venture beyond the accommodation in the suburb.

An analysis of the concentration of drinking spots per suburb will be performed and a concentration indicator will be presented visually for the visitor to interact with
